LONDON, March 3.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris.

"THE British commissaries have recently made a push towards determining the affair of Limits in America, and in particular the islands in dispute between the two crowns: But our commissaries have turned a deaf ear to the expedients proposed for adjusting that affair, giving the others to understand, that there is a material article which must be previously settled, viz. the French prizes made during the war between England and Spain; and as the British court does not seem to be of a pliant temper in either of these affairs, we continue our naval preparations, that we may be ready to decide all differences by the mouth of our cannon, if no other expedients can be found.——The last advices from Madrid say, that tho' Mr Keene has made no progress in any material part of his negociation, his excellency has nevertheless had fresh assurances that his catholic majesty had sent very precise orders to the guarda costas in the West-Indies, to be more cautious for the future in visiting and taking English ships, his intention being, that all those who are not clearly convicted, or justly suspected, of carrying on a contraband trade, be immediately released, &c.

Paris, March 6. Ten ships are sailed in company from port L'Orient to the East-Indies.

We learn from Jamaica, that the planters there have been very diligently cultivating the propagation of the logwood-tree in that Island, and that tho' they have hitherto been able to cut down but little, yet what they have cut is preferable to the logwood of the bay of Campeachy, of a deep red colour and firmer texture, and bearing a better price.

London, March 7. We hear, for the better and more effectual manner of performing Quarantine, a Lazaret is to be erected at Chedney-hill, near the upper part of Stadgate creek, in the river Medway.

The India company have on board their ships outward-bound, a considerable number of Swiss soldiers, for the better protection of their forts in India.

London, March 9. On tuesday morning a young gentleman was taken up as a highwayman, by a man who lives on the other side of the bridge. This fellow had taken notice of the description of one who was known for some time past to have infested the Surrey road; and upon seeing him, he immediately apprehended him upon suspicion, and carried him before Justice Hammond, who committed him to new prison for further examination. He proves to be a natural son of the late unfortunate earl of K———k, and is said to have been concerned with the attorney's son lately taken. We hear he intends to turn evidence, by which a combination of persons of some distinction, who have engaged in this fraudulent course, will be discovered.

London, March 10. Some who are well acquainted with the British interest in the West-Indies, are firmly of opinion, that if at this juncture an effectual encouragement were given to the planters at Jamaica to break up fresh grounds, while their rivals are embarrassed, and, at the same time, an entire stop put to the clandestine trade with the French; it would give a great turn in our favour.

On friday the right hon. the lord Tyrawley set out to embark for Lisbon on his embassy there.

Paris, March 10. The king's regular troops actually amount to 130,000 foot, and about 70,000 horse, all in excellent order, and more than sufficient in time of peace; notwithstanding which a large draught is ordered to be made from the militia, to form several new regiments, and to augment others.

London, March 17. Yesterday Theodore baron of Neuhoff, late king of Corsica, attended a committee of the honorable house of commons, according to their order.

Whitehall, March 17. The King has been pleased to appoint Thomas Hopson, Esq; to be general and commander of all and singular his Majesty's forces employed or to be employed in his Majesty province of Nova-Scotia, in the room of Col. Cornwallis.

London, March 18. By private letters from India by the Dragon, there is advice, that Mr. Clive, a volunteer, had the command given him to head a company to attack Arcourt, a place which was in the possession of the French, whom he drove from thence, secured the place, and found a great deal of treasure; and it is said, the French went to attack Surat, which place it is feared will soon be taken.
